Parents: Why Scouting?

In Cub Scouting, we build in many ways, figuratively and literally. From your son's perspective, we build things – pinewood derby cars, campsites, friendships and have fun. While that's good, as parents we're looking for more.

We want our kids to grow up building a better world. We hope that our efforts as parents will build solid, caring adults. We hope to build young men of character who have a solid foundation such as the points of the Scout Law shown above.

A Cub Scout parent recently shared with me that his son washed the car, unsolicited. When asked why, his response was, "It's what we do. We're Scouts, right?"

Another boy was observed helping a fellow child, extending a hand of friendship to a child who was being teased. When asked why he responded, "Isn't that what we are supposed to do? We're Scouts."

We have fun. We have adventures. We try new things. We build our future. Give your son a chance and join us. Be a Scout.
